

Certificate of Addiction and Mental Health Supervision Course Three 2019 Auckland – 13 September to 29 November

ABACUS Counselling, Training & Supervision Ltd has been granted approval by NZQA under section 251 of the Education Act 1989 to provide a Certificate of Addiction and Mental Health Supervision (Level 6).

The course will comprise six modules:

1. Review of recent professional supervision theory and practice
2. Supervision for addictions and mental health
3. Supervision and technology
4. Group supervision
5. Reflection on own addiction supervision practice
6. Tools and resources to support the supervision relationship

The Six Module course will be delivered over a 11-week period, with an expected 200 hours to complete. All Modules are presented online, with Module One to be completed prior to a two-day workshop in Auckland. The workshop will review Module One and present an overview of the remaining Five Modules. All resources for each module will be available online, along with a student handbook. Note: Every effort should be made by the student to complete the course in the 11-week period, however, at the tutors' discretion your enrolment can remain open for 18-months i.e. transfer to a consequent course (maximum of two following your original enrolment date).

Dates:

Module One:	13 September – 24 September
